Speciality Coffees

Monmouth Coffee

We started roasting and retailing coffee in 1978. From the start, we roasted in the basement of our shop on Monmouth Street, Covent Garden, using rather old-fashioned, direct-flame machines, first a small UNO and finally a 1930s Whitmee. Our aim was to source interesting coffees, roast them daily and encourage our customers to taste our coffees before they bought them. Almost thirty years later, having opened another shop in Borough Market, we found that we had outgrown our basement in Covent Garden and it was time to find a bigger space from which to roast. Late in 2007 we moved into our premises on Maltby Street, Bermondsey
